

Digital Student Conference

Case Studies in Economic Criticism

08-09 July 2022

Universität Innsbruck - Technische Universität Dortmund

Friday, July 8th

14-14:10 Introduction

14:10 – 15:15 “The Representation of the Concepts of ‘Responsibilisation’ and ‘Mental Load’ by Momfluencers on Instagram: An Analysis of Posts by Momfluencer Louise Pentland”

“Make Housing Affordable! Rising Rents and Their Impact on Students’ Lives”

15:15-16:05 “Privilege Then and Now – From Emma to Clueless”

“Representation of Class in ‘The Garden Party’”

16:40-17:45 “Modern-Day Slavery in the Fast Fashion Industry: Unethical Financial Benefits and Consequences”

“Reconstructing the Work-Life-Balance in Contemporary European Societies: Current Arguments for and against a Reduced Working Week”

17:45-18:35 “Fight Club as a Critique of Consumerism”

“Falling Off the Social Ladder”

Saturday, July 9th

10:30-10:55 “The Problem of Social Inequality in Oliver Twist”

10:55-12:00 “Communicating Sustainability: How the Oil and Gas Company BP Addresses Environmental Concerns”

“The Eternity of Capitalism: Time as Currency in Andrew Niccol’s In Time (2011)”

12:00-12:20 Final Discussion

Join Zoom Meeting

